On 24 January 1951, the two four-story buildings of the barracks installation on Ilberstedter Strasse, Bornburg (M 52/D 76), which fronted on the street, were occupied to capacity by troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets without branch-of-service insignia. Each building quartered about 400 troops. Dense fog blocked the view into the billeting area. Six groups, each of 12 to 16 men with red-bordered black epaulets, were engaged in aiming practice with rifles at the drill field south of the barracks installation.

a large convoy of trucks left the installation toward Koethen on 20 January 1951. *

* Comment. It is believed that, in addition to the two buildings fronting on Ilberstedter Strasse still further barracks buildings were occupied, since up to 1,100 troops were previously reported to have been stationed in the installation.
